SCHOOL OF COMPETITION LAW & MARKET REGULATION

ADVANCED PROFESSIONAL COURSE ON COMPETITION LAW & MARKET REGULATIONS [ONLINE] THIRTEENTH BATCH

ABOUT COURSE

With the enforcement of the Competition Act, 2002, there is an increasing need for organisations and professionals across both the public and private sectors to develop a sound understanding of competition law. To address this requirement, IICA has uniquely designed and developed this course as a concise, flexible, and focused learning programme tailored to the specific professional needs of policymakers, regulators, business executives, lawyers, economists, Company Secretaries (CS), Chartered Accountants (CA), and other professionals. Over time, the course has established itself as a benchmark programme in the fields of competition law, economics, and market regulation, owing to its rigorous curriculum, emphasis on specialised professional requirements, and the convenience of online delivery.

This Certificate Course is designed to enable participants to acquire a comprehensive understanding of Competition Law concepts, from foundational to advanced levels, while incorporating a practical perspective through:

- A broad-based overview of Competition Law and economic principles from leading experts, aligned with the Competition Act, 2002, including the latest developments.
- Specially curated, high-quality study material and case-based learning methodologies.
- Critical and analytical evaluation of key issues in the field of Competition Law and Economics.
